

Advisor Selection/Change Form
Department of Computer Science
Stony Brook University

Every graduate student must fill out this form, obtain appropriate signatures, and return the form to the Graduate Director. A Ph.D. student must select an advisor by the end of the first semester in the program; an M.S. student must select an advisor by the end of the second semester. Changing an advisor requires filling out another form.
